

Michael Batcho is Director of Music for the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist, where he serves as the principal organist, directs the Cathedral Choir and Women's Choir, and oversees the Cathedral Fine Arts Series. He also is an adjunct faculty member in the Music Department of Cardinal Stritch University where he serves as director of the Concert Choir

Batcho earned a bachelor of music degree, Magna Cum Laude, from West Virginia University. He earned a master of music degree with a choral conducting emphasis from Virginia Commonwealth University. In addition, he has done some graduate work in liturgy and theology at the University of Notre Dame and Washington Theological Union. He has held various church and diocesan posts in West Virginia, Maine and Virginia as well as faculty positions in the public school system in Maine and J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College, Richmond, Va.

Batcho holds membership in the National Association of Pastoral Musicians - DMMD Division, American Guild of Organists, Conference of Roman Catholic Cathedral Musicians, American Choral Directors Association and the Pi Kappa Lambda Music Honor Society. In addition to performing organ programs in Milwaukee, he has performed recitals at St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York, and the Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart, Newark. He has served as guest conductor for the Diocese of Providence, R.I. and does choral music reviews for NPM.