

Mary Ellen Burrescia, pianist, is a member of the MacDowell Club, Associated Piano Teachers, Milwaukee Music Teacher's Association, and the Mu Phi Epsilon International Music Fraternity for which she performs two season concerts annually produced in NYC at the Tenri Cultural Institute. She holds degrees in Piano Performance and Music Education from Dominican College, with graduate studies at UW-Milwaukee and the Wisconsin Conservatory of Music. She studied with Adelaide Banaszynski and Naomi Zaslav. She has appeared as soloist for the Goethe Institute at the Villa Terrace Art Museum, The Milwaukee Art Museum, Kohler Art Center, Alverno College, UW-Madison, Roosevelt University-Chicago and the Milwaukee Catholic Symphony Orchestra.