

CARLA COONAN

Carla Coonan is current President and performing member of the Milwaukee MacDowell Club, a certified teacher of the Making Music Praying Twice a music and motion toddler program, and a private piano instructor. She enjoys being active in church music ministry, adjudicating piano competitions and collaborating with many instrumentalists, vocalists and musical ensembles throughout the area. When she is not busy at the piano, she has fun growing her hosta collection! She is married to Brian and has two children.
