

STEVEN GROTH

Steven Groth, baritone, hails from Delafield Wisconsin. He recently graduated this past fall with his Bachelor of Music in choral and general music education and French with a certificate in European Studies. While he is enjoying teaching elementary music for the remainder of this school year, he greatly looks forward to enhancing the performing aspect of his career.

At the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Steve performed in several competitions including the Wisconsin chapter of NATS where he placed in the semi-finals in both the junior and senior men's divisions. He performed the role of the Count in the UW-Madison scenes program and has given recitals in both voice and piano at the culmination of his academic studies there. More recent performances have occurred at various churches throughout the greater Milwaukee area, singing arias from works such as Bach's B-minor mass, Handel's Messiah, and more.

He will be pursuing a Master's degree in vocal performance with a secondary emphasis in collaborative piano beginning in the fall of 2014. He thanks his professors, friends and family for their constant support and guidance throughout his studies.
