

Mariann Landa graduated from Mount Union College in Alliance, Ohio with a major in music education and a minor in piano. She also received a Master's degree in music, from the University of Michigan with a major in Music Literature and a minor in piano. Since coming to Milwaukee, she has been active as an organist and a pianist. She won first prize as organist in a Contest sponsored by the Society of American Musicians in Chicago.

Her teachers include Robert Lodine (organ) and Adelaide Banazynski (piano) and at present, Michael Fritch of Chicago (piano). Mrs. Landa has taught piano, both at her home studio and the Conservatory of Music. She is a past dean of the Milwaukee chapter of The American Guild of Organists and past president of The MacDowell Club.