

Suzanne M. Lent

EXPERIENCE

Taught for the past 59 years and am presently teaching private instruction in piano and theory.

1987 - 1991 Milwaukee Lutheran High School

Adjunct Music Teacher to grades 9 -12.

1985 - 1987 Averno College

Taught piano and theory to adults and children in the Community Arts Department.

1975 - 1976 Bloomfield Public Schools, Bloomfield, NJ

Taught vocal music and chorus in four schools

1970 - 1972 Mahwah Public Schools, Mahwah, NJ

Taught public school music as a vocal music substitute teacher

1963 - 1970 Taught private instruction in piano and theory

1961 - 1962 Bloomfield Public Schools, Bloomfield, NJ

Taught vocal music and chorus in six schools

EDUCATION

Montclair State College, Montclair, NJ, 1972 - 1973

Master of Music Education post-graduate work

Rutgers University - Douglass College

New Brunswick, NJ, 1961

Bachelor of Liberal Arts, Music Education

- * Phi Beta Kappa
- * Dean's List all four years
- * Graduated as "Senior Most Likely to Succeed in the Field of Teaching"
- * Assistant to Director of the Chapel Choir

CREDITS & SCHOLARSHIPS

New Jersey Music Federation Scholarship in the Senior Piano Division - 1st Place

Recipient of Music Education League Scholarship in New York City in the Piano Division

Won Highest Honors in the Griffith Music Foundation Auditions in Senior Piano and the Young Artist's Division

Received a New Jersey State Scholarship for academic excellence and performance while pursuing a career in music

Suzanne M. Lent

Teachers

Isabelle Sant Ambroggio (deceased) affiliated with Bloomfield, NJ and Steinway Hall, New York City

Robert Dix Lincoln, Music Chairman at Douglas College, retired
Murray Present, Montclair State College

Isadore Freeman, Resident Pianist, New York Philharmonic

Performances

Symphony Hall, Newark, NJ

Town Hall, New York City

Radio Station WQXR and WINS, New York

Atlantic City, NJ (New Jersey Women's Club and recipient of a Women's Club full scholarship in Piano Performance)

Numerous community functions and school performances in the cities in which I have resided

Professional Affiliations

Phi Beta Kappa

Milwaukee Music Teacher's Association, served as an officer

Milwaukee Area Piano Teachers Association (MAPTA)