MAC DOWELL CLUB PRESENTS AN ORGANFEST

What: Free Performance

When: 3 PM Sunday, 21 February 2010

Where: St. Joseph Center Chapel, 1501 South Layton Boulevard

Milwaukee, WI – This year, the MacDowell Club of Milwaukee is holding its annual organ concert in the city's most beautiful venue, the exquisite chapel at the St. Joseph Center located on South Layton Boulevard just south of Greenfield Avenue. Open and free to the public, the three o'clock program on Sunday, February 21st, features five of the Club's organists, the Milwaukee Jewish Community Chorale, and a broad spectrum of music for pipe organ, some with additional instruments.

Performing works of John Carre, Jacques Berthier, Sr. Theophane Hytrek, Dennis Janzer, Bernard Sanders, Calimerio Soares, Padre Antonio Soler, and Club member Sr. Marion Verhaalen, will be Wallace Cheatham, Sheri Masiakowski, Mariann Landa, Suzanne Pajunen and former member Dennis Janzer, coming from Tennessee especially for the occasion. Assisting artists are Ana de la Cuesta Gerlach, flute, and Kevin Erickson, trumpet. For additional information, contact Sr. Verhaalen at Mverhaalen@aol.com or call 414-645-6885.

The MacDowell Club, currently observing its centennial, has two more concerts scheduled this spring: Sunday afternoon, March 14th at the new Greenfield Public Library and Sunday evening, May 23rd, at Cardinal Stritch University's Nancy Kendall Theater. In addition, occasional private Tea Concerts are held in member's homes for Club members and their guests. Inquiries about Performing Membership may be sent to Dennis King at dwking@stritch.edu or visit www.macdowellclubmilwaukee.org. Non-performing Associate Memberships are welcome at any time by sending a check for $25 dues, made payable to the MacDowell Club of Milwaukee, c/o Treasurer Barbara Bunge, 5860 Fulham Court, Greendale WI 53129.
