MUSIC CLUB CELEBRATES SPRING WITH CELTIC CONCERT

What: Free Performance

When: 3 PM Sunday, 14 March 2010

Where: Greenfield Public Library, 5310 West Layton Avenue

Milwaukee, WI – The MacDowell Club of Milwaukee announces its spring concert to be presented in the new Greenfield Public Library, 5310 West Layton Avenue, on Sunday, March 21st, at 3 o'clock. While donations are always welcome, the program is free and open to the public.

Performing are MacDowell Club members pianist Carla Coonan of Bay View; flutist Linda Hartig of Waukesha; Gail Hodkiewicz of Hales Corners; and mezzo-soprano Christine O'Meally of Wauwatosa. Also appearing are baritone/pianist Ryan Capplemann of Franklin; soprano/pianist Wendelin Lockett-Kendzor of Grafton; tenor William Lavonis of Shorewood; and tenor Ryan Stajmiger of Wauwatosa.

With a nod to the Emerald Isle, the program is entitled "Bits of Blarney" and features works by 20th Century composers John Corigliano, Edward Edelson, Richard Faith; Stephen Flaherty; Mark Hayes; Jake Heggie; Burton Lane; Tom Lehrer; Ben Moore; and Earlene Rentz; all referencing Celtic heritage.
