

VALERIE POGUE

Valerie Pogue holds a BA in Music Piano Performance from the University of Wisconsin-Parkside and Teacher certification in choral and General Music from UW-Milwaukee. Valerie has served as Musical Director for many Milwaukee community musical theatre productions. She currently teaches piano and voice in her home studio and is the assistant to the music department at Bay View High School. She is a member of the Milwaukee Music Teachers Association.

Valerie grew up on the east side of Milwaukee and lives there now in her antique house with her cat, Abbey. Valerie is very happy to be the conductor of the Milwaukee Damenchor and enjoys working to make beautiful music with the ladies of the Choir.
