

SALLY LANE SCHWARZ

Sally Lane Schwarz, soprano, earned Bachelor's and Master's degrees in applied voice from Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois, and completed additional graduate studies in vocal literature and voice at the University of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa and at the Music Academy of the West, Santa Barbara, California.

Ms. Schwarz was a long-time member of the Florentine Opera Company Chorus, performing comprimario roles with the Florentines, as well as roles with the Skylight Opera Company and the Milwaukee Opera Company. She has performed many recitals including those sponsored by the Civic Music Association, the Goethe House of Milwaukee, the Dorothy Goff Frisch Recital Series at Carroll University as well as Faculty Recitals at Carroll University. She has appeared as soloist with the Waukesha Symphony, the Gulf Coast Symphony Orchestra, the Concord Chamber Orchestra, Waukesha Choral Union, and the Milwaukee Chamber Orchestra. Ms. Schwarz has been fortunate to sing at many places while vacationing in Italy, including Florence, Lucca, Rome, and the Amalfi Coast.

Ms. Schwarz has been a member of the voice faculty at Carroll University since 1992, where she has developed and taught the vocal literature course. Ms. Schwarz also teaches in her home studio.